Tehama County CattleWomen's Creed

*Believing that the livestock industry
is of basic importance
to world existence,*

*We, the Tehama County
CattleWomen dedicate ourselves
to support it
with our labor and finances;*

*To promote it through
information and publicity;*

*To encourage its producers with
our understanding and love;*

*To do all in our power to instill
in the coming generation,*

*The love of the land and of life,
the humility and awe before nature,
and the hope and faith in the future
that is inherent in Cattlemen
and CattleWomen.*

PROFILE

- The Tehama County CattleWomen were originally formed as the Tehama County CowBelles on April 25, 1953. The first year there was a charter membership of 74.

- Membership includes: Women who are interested in the promotion of the BEEF cattle industry and those who are involved in the day to day business of raising cattle.

PURPOSE

- To assist the Tehama County Cattlemen's Association in its efforts to promote the well-being of the livestock industry.

- Educate youth about the journey of BEEF from birth to plate, food safety, and BEEF's nutritional value.

- Educate consumers about the safe, convenient, versatile and wholesome qualities of BEEF in a well-balanced diet.

- Stress the importance of agriculture to the environment and to the economy and that good stewardship of the land is an on going agricultural practice.
